

Production Assistant Internship Frequency Festival 2019

About the Internship

Internships at Frequency Festival are part of the RADAR Creative Graduate Scheme and are open to University of Lincoln College of Arts graduates from within the last three years (graduation years 2017, 2018 and 2019).

The RADAR Creative Graduate Scheme offers paid internship placements and mentorship for creative graduates looking to gain hands-on experience within the creative sector and a head start after University.

About the Festival

Frequency Festival is an international festival of digital creativity, showcasing innovative works by emerging and established artists, creative technologists and performers.

This year the festival is taking place in Lincoln from 24-27 October 2019, with a jam-packed programme across four days.

Since its inception in 2011, Frequency has hosted over 450 local, national and international artists, exhibiting their work to over 60,000 visitors across four festival editions. Frequency draws the city's residents and its visitors off their intended path to discover a world of digital, electronic and hybrid art in unusual spaces; mainly the city's heritage spaces and its shopping precincts, and into its venues, museums and galleries.

Frequency Festival is produced by Threshold Studios, in partnership with the University of Lincoln and supported using public funding by the National Lottery through Arts Council England.
